ALABAMA ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS

The Alabama Athletics Communications Office is located on the ground level of Coleman Coliseum in room 170.

MEDIA SERVICES/CREDENTIALS

Members of the media are supplied with up-to-date release packages that can be obtained on www.rolltide.com. The release contains updated statistics, season results and notes. Pregame notes and media guides are available before all home games at Rhoads Stadium. Coach Patrick Murphy and Alabama's players are available for interviews following games.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews must be arranged through Nathan Sheehan of the Communications Office. The softball team practices at Rhoads Stadium, located at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Campus Drive. Players and coaches are available prior to practice. Media availability for on-field interviews generally occurs once per week with dates and times sent through our email distribution list.

INTERNET

Information about University of Alabama Athletics can be found online at the official athletics department website, www.RollTide.com, where links to live stats, video and radio broadcasts of each game can be found.

RADIO

Every pitch of the 2020 season can be heard on the Crimson Tide Sports Network as Tom Canterbury returns for his sixth season as the voice of Alabama softball, joined by Gray Robertson in his fourth. Fans can listen locally in Tuscaloosa on 93.3 FM with select games also available throughout the state on other CTSN affiliates.

SEC NETWORK +

Every Alabama home game and select SEC road games will be streamed online for free through the SEC Network's online platform, available at WatchESPN.com or on mobile devices via the WatchESPN app.

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

On June 18, 2015, The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama named Dr. Stuart R. Bell the University's 29th president. A 30-year veteran of higher education, Dr. Bell had previously served at the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and then department head of mechanical engineering. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center producing new generations of engineers and scientists

Since his return to the Capstone, Dr. Bell has led the University to develop and implement a strategic plan, Advancing the Flagship, which promotes institutional progress with scholarship and teaching, research and creative activity, inclusion and diversity, and the recruitment and retention of highly qualified faculty and staff. Three years after the plan's launch, UA has seen an increase in both student retention and graduation rates, has increased faculty headcount to support the University's instruction, research and service goals, and has witnessed the growth of sponsored program awards crucial to the direct learning and experience opportunities for students, and experienced two consecutive historic fundraising years. New interdisciplinary research centers have also been established and join many other centers on campus focused on solving critical, real-world challenges. Under Dr. Bell's guidance, UA is steadfastly expanding campus facilities and bolstering academic and co-curricular programs, all of which continue to draw exceptional students to Alabama.

Prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University and served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer. During his tenure at LSU, Dr. Bell led an expansion of facilities and research and discovery efforts. He was also instrumental in increasing enrollment and retention, and his efforts yielded the largest freshman class in LSU history.

Before his time at LSU, Dr. Bell served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering. He joined UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the department of mechanical engineering. He was later named department head, where he led the development of academic programs until accepting the Kansas deanship in 2002.

An Abilene, Texas native, Dr. Bell earned a degree in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M in 1979. He earned his master's and doctoral degrees in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively. With research interests in combustion engines, he has expertise in fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes.

It was also at Texas A&M that Dr. Bell met his wife, Susan. They are the proud parents of three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen and two delightful granddaughters. Both of Dr. Bell's sons followed his example and are engineers. His daughter Stacy is a UA graduate.

- The Carnegie Foundation lists The University of Alabama among the top doctoral research universities in the United States. For the first time in its history, UA achieved Doctoral Universities – Very High Research Activity status, formerly known as the R1 category, in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education.
- Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached 38,392 for fall 2018. Approximately 40% of UA's freshman class scored 30 or higher on the ACT, and more than 36% were in the top 10% of their high school graduating class. The entering class in 2018 carries an average high school grade-point average of 3.71, with more than 34% having a high school GPA of 4.0 or higher. The class's average ACT is 27.
- UA ranks second nationally among public universities and fifth among all universities nationwide in enrollment of National Merit Scholars for the 2018 entering class. UA has a total of 614 National Merit Scholars enrolled.
- U.S. News and World Report ranks The University of Alabama's Manderson Online Business Master's programs 10th in the nation. In addition, U.S. News and World Report ranks UA's School of Law 25th among all law schools in the nation (eighth among public universities). Also, UA's School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 28th nationally in the latest rankings for library schools.
- UA's Culverhouse School of Accountancy's undergraduate program ranks ninth overall in 2018, seventh overall for a program with a faculty size at more than 24 and third in the South, according to the Public Accounting Report. The master's programs are ranked 10th overall, and the doctoral program is ranked eighth overall.
- University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Fifty-six UA students have been named Goldwater Scholars, including three in 2019. UA has produced 15 Rhodes Scholars, 16 Truman Scholars, 33 Hollings Scholars and 15 Boren Scholars (including two Boren scholars in 2019).
- Twenty-six current UA faculty have received National Science Foundation CAREER Awards, the nation's most prestigious recognition of top-performing young scientists, in disciplines ranging from nanoscience to biological sciences.
- Ten University of Alabama alumni and students won Fulbright awards for teaching overseas 2019-20. For the third time in four years, UA was recognized as a Top Producing Institution for Fulbright U.S. Students.
- PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation eight times in the past 11 years.
- Students at UA who competed in the NASA Robotic Mining Competition came away with the top prize for the fifth year in a row in 2019.
- UA is building a new Performing Arts Academic Center on the historic Bryce property. The $60 million center will provide the theatre and dance department with space for performances and to expand its community programming and outreach.

GREG BYRNE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Greg Byrne, one of the most acclaimed and respected administrators in collegiate athletics, began his tenure as Alabama's Director of Athletics on March 1, 2017. His role at Alabama is his third venture at the helm of a major collegiate athletics program.

Since taking over, Byrne developed and implemented The Crimson Standard, a five-year strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics as well as benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity. In addition, The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of an infrastructure that will drive future success was created.

Alabama Athletics celebrated its highest finish in program history in the Learfield Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2017-18 season, placing 14th thanks to a national championship in football, runner-up finishes in men's and women's golf and NCAA postseason appearances by men's basketball, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's indoor track & field and men's and women's outdoor track & field. The Tide also continued its run of excellence in the classroom, leading the nation in Academic All-Americans with 11.

Prior to coming to Alabama, Byrne was Vice President for Athletics at the University of Arizona from 2010-17 and was Director of Athletics at Mississippi State University from 2008-10. With more than 20 years of experience as an athletics administrator, Byrne has fashioned an impressive administrative career hallmarked by consistent success in fundraising, innovative strategies and competitive success with a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been consistently more impactful and successful with each step up the administrative ladder. As a fundraiser, he has been directly involved in raising more than $200 million in gifts during his career. As a leader of competitive athletics programs, he has fostered major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both programs he has led. A proponent of developing student-athletes into productive people after college, Byrne has led programs that have attained academic success at levels not reached prior to his tenure.

He also has deep experience working in the Southeastern Conference (SEC), having spent 2002 to 2005 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising before a four-year stint at Mississippi State (2006-10). From 2006-08, Byrne served as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU before becoming Director of Athletics.

Under Byrne's leadership, Arizona Athletics underwent more than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities. That work was highlighted by the $72 million Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the addition of two video boards in Arizona Stadium (football), and a new scoreboard in the McKale Center (basketball). Additionally, Byrne oversaw a $30 million renovation of the McKale Center, a project that included upgraded locker rooms, seating, restrooms, concessions, enhanced lighting and a new playing floor.

At Mississippi State, where he was the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level, Byrne oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen.

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including the United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council, the Division I Football Oversight Committee and the Southeastern Conference Security Committee. He is currently also serving his one-year term as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

As the son of veteran athletics administrator Bill Byrne, one of the nation's most prominent college sports administrators with 30 years of experience as an Athletics Director, Greg Byrne has been around the enterprise of running successful athletic programs for most of his life.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

BYRNE FAMILY

Greg and his wife, Regina, with sons Nick and Davis.

The University of Alabama knows a thing or two about legends.

Legends have been made in our academic halls, on our athletic fields and courts, and through our endeavors to shape a better world through our teaching, research and service.

UA legends earn prestigious honors, such as Pulitzer Prizes, Emmy Awards, Heisman Trophies and Medals of Honor. They wear names like inventor, entrepreneur, best-selling author, pioneer, CEO, founder and national champion.

Here are just a few of our legends:

Best-selling authors: Harper Lee, "To Kill a Mockingbird"; Winston Groom, "Forrest Gump"; Kathryn Stockett, "The Help"; Mark Childress, "Crazy in Alabama"; and T.S. Stribling, "The Store."

CEO/Chairman of the Board/President: Marillyn Hewson, Lockheed Martin; W.W. Clements, Dr Pepper Company; Sam DiPiazza, PricewaterhouseCoopers; Thom Rainer, Lifeway Christian Resources; Vicki Hollub, Occidental Petroleum.

Pioneers and Founders: Millard Fuller, Habitat for Humanity; Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia; Joe Gibbs, Golf Channel; John Hendricks, Discovery Channel; Janet Gurwitch, Laura Mercier cosmetics.

Science: Dr. Edward O. Wilson, biologist, researcher and two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author; Robert Jemison Van de Graaff, scientist and inventor.

Journalism: Howell Raines, Pulitzer winner at The New York Times; John Cochran, prize-winning television journalist; Rece Davis, ESPN journalist.

It matters where you go to college. The University of Alabama is among the fastest growing flagships in the country because of our commitment to excellence and the success of our graduates. The Fulbright Student Program recognizes UA as a top producer of Fulbright recipients. For the last 11 years, UA has ranked among the top five institutions for Goldwater Scholars, producing more than Harvard and MIT. And we rank in the top five nationally for National Merit Scholars.

For The University of Alabama softball team, home field advantage is a fact of life. After walking through the $4.2 million stadium and clubhouse, it is easy to see how the Crimson Tide posted a 28-4 home record in 2019 and owns an overall 555-92 (.858) record while playing in the stadium.

Additions to the already pristine complex were made during the 2009 season and helped boost the total attendance of the stadium to more than 3,000. Tier seating was added in right field along with a standing-room concourse area that includes tables and drink rails. For the 2012 season, tier seating was added in center field and two new scoreboards were installed to accommodate the fans in the Brickyard.

Construction on a new indoor practice facility, field house and expansion to the clubhouse began after the completion of the 2010 season. The state-of-the-art facility, which was completed before first pitch of the 2011 season, includes a lobby, players lounge, locker room, video room, an expanded training room and coaches offices.

In 2016, a new LCD video board was added, the largest such display in the SEC. A new sound system was also installed on the concourse and in the brickyard.

Rhoads Stadium saw another round of renovations prior to the 2020 season, with the addition of a new concession stand, ticket entrance and umpire locker room along with improvements to the clubhouse, hitting facility and press box.

For pre-game and post-game treatment, the athletic training staff has a fully equipped training room at their disposal, stocked with two training tables, an ice machine, a miniwhirlpool and a hydroculator used to hold heat packs for shoulders, arms, legs.

In the new clubhouse, coach Murphy and his staff can utilize a state-of-the-art video suite for team meetings and film breakdown.

For the fans there are 500 chairback seats, the new tier seating in right and center field, 1,095 bleacher back seats and a large overhang that protects from inclement weather.

There are two ticket booths to accommodate the rush of fans and a large concession stand sitting directly behind the pressbox. Two private luxury suites sit on both sides of the pressbox that includes home and visitor radio booths, a television booth, a booth for the sound and video system, and a media room large enough to hold press conferences during tournaments.

Rhoads Stadium has proven to be one of the finest places to watch softball in the nation and the attendance numbers support that claim. Alabama is the only school in the country to sell out its tickets before the season has even started and the Crimson Tide has accomplished that feat six times. In 2016, Alabama became the first program in NCAA history to average over 3,000 fans during the regular season.

Attendance has topped the 90,000 mark in four of the last eight years, including 2012 (91,541), 2013 (93,332), 2015 (90,021) and 2017 (92,199).

GREAT MOMENTS IN RHOADS STADIUM HISTORY

FEBRUARY 23, 2000 - OPENING NIGHT

With an introduction that included fireworks and a capacity crowd, the Alabama Softball Complex officially opened against in-state foe UAB. The Blazers took the early lead, but behind a six-run sixth inning the Crimson Tide earned a 7-1 win. All-American Shelley Laird earned the first win in the new circle and senior Nicki McKee belted the first home run. Kelly Kretschman and Ginger Jones collected two hits apiece while Kristi Frenier went deep and drove in three runs. First pitch was at 7:04 p.m. and 1,501 fans took in a new era of Alabama softball.

MARCH 13, 2004 - DRAMATIC COMEBACK

Against arguably the toughest southpaw to toe the rubber, the Tide welcomed Monica Abbott and the Tennessee Lady Volunteers. Stephanie VanBrakle delivered with her arm first, then with her bat later, as she helped Alabama post a doubleheader sweep. VanBrakle allowed three hits and struck out 11 batters en route to the win. Then with Alabama trailing, 3-1, with two on and two out in the bottom of the seventh, VanBrakle hit a walk-off home run that bounced off the top of the right field fence for the final 4-3 margin.

MAY 23, 2009 - DUNNE NO-HITS JSU TWICE

NCAA history was made and, in doing so, it propelled Alabama to its sixth Women's College World Series. Crimson Tide ace Kelsi Dunne threw her second no-hitter in two days at the Tuscaloosa Super Regional to help lead Alabama to a pair of 9-0 wins over Jacksonville State on ESPN. Dunne struck out seven and walked only one in each of the two contests to tie an NCAA record for consecutive no-hitters in NCAA postseason play. Seniors Kelley Montalvo and Kellie Eubanks belted home runs to provide all the offense Dunne would need.

MAY 27, 2011 - TIDE RALLIES TO GO TO WCWS

Alabama was in search of its seventh trip to the Women's College World Series. Hosting Stanford, the Tide's back was against the wall after losing the first game of the Tuscaloosa Super Regional. Facing elimination, Alabama run-ruled the Cardinal, 10-0, to start the day and then fought its way to a thrilling 1-0 win in the deciding game. A triple down the line off the bat of Cassie Reilly-Boccia brought Jaclyn Traina all the way home from first for the game-winning run. Traina later shut the door in the seventh inning to send the Tide to Oklahoma City.

MAY 23, 2014 - 12-INNING MARATHON

Alabama's first game of the 2014 Tuscaloosa Super Regional against Nebraska was the longest home game in Alabama history, stretching 12 innings and nearly four-and-a-half hours. The Huskers held the lead for the majority of regulation while the Tide gradually chipped away as the game went on, trailing 5-4 in the seventh inning. Freshman Marisa Runyon led off the seventh with a solo home run to tie the game and eventually send it to extra innings. The teams battled back-and-forth for five more innings, with fellow freshman Peyton Grantham eventually slugging the game-winning home run in the bottom of the 12th inning at 12:27 a.m.

MAY 23, 2015 - HOME RUNYON

After falling in game one to Oklahoma in the 2015 Super Regional round, Alabama rallied to win game two and force a deciding game three. The Tide took the first lead of the game but a pair of home runs by Sooner slugger Lauren Chamberlain put the visitors on top, 3-1, heading into the bottom of the sixth. Marisa Runyon, who was hitless over her previous 13 at-bats, came to the plate with the bases loaded and sent the first pitch she saw into the right field stands to give Alabama a 5-3 lead. Alexis Osorio finished it out in the circle with a 1-2-3 top of the seventh to punch Alabama's 10th ticket to the Women's College World Series.

NATIONAL ATTENDANCE LEADER

The fans at Rhoads Stadium provides Alabama Softball with a home field advantage that is second-to-none in college softball. The Crimson Tide faithful pack the seats week-in and week-out and open seats have become such a hot commodity that there is an ever-growing waiting list to secure season tickets.

Alabama has led the nation in attendance in each of the last 11 seasons. Over 90,000 fans came to Rhoads Stadium during the 2012 season that ultimately ended in a national title, and that NCAA-record mark would be bested the very next season when 93,332 packed the stands in 2013. Attendance would again surge past 90,000 in 2015 and, the next season, Alabama would become the first school in NCAA history to average 3,000 fans per game during the regular season.

On April 20, 2013, a NCAA-record 4,002 fans watched Alabama defeat Mississippi State, 11-3, and that would remain at the top of the regular-season attendance list until the Tide bested the mark four years later. With additional stands installed past left field ahead of a highly-anticipated three-game series against in-state rival Auburn, the Tide hosted three-straight sellout crowds of 4,015.

The home field advantage isn't limited to the regular season, as postseason softball at Rhoads Stadium has become an annual occurrence. Alabama has hosted 16 NCAA Regional rounds at Rhoads Stadium, including a current streak of 14-straight starting in 2005. Alabama has not lost a game in Regional play since 2007, extending it to 37-straight games with three wins in 2018. In Super Regional play, Alabama has hosted nine out of the 14 rounds it has qualified to, winning eight of those nine home Super Regional series.

Rhoads Stadium's reputation and its fervent fanbase has also garnered the attention of non-collegiate softball institutions as a premiere destination for events. In 2016, National Pro Fastpitch hosted its Championship Series in Tuscaloosa, marking the first time the event had been held at a collegiate softball stadium. The league saw record attendance numbers over the weekend and allowed the fans to see the return of some of its most accomplished alumni in Kelly Kretschman, Kelley Montalvo, Jaclyn Traina and Haylie McCleney. In 2017, Team USA hosted a doubleheader scrimmage against a selection of local collegiate players, bringing the best players in the country to one of the premiere destinations in the country for softball.

"THERE IS NOTHING QUITE LIKE PLAYING AND COACHING IN A PACKED RHOADS STADIUM. SOMEHOW, THE NOISE LEVEL INCREASES EVERY YEAR DESPITE HAVING THE SAME NUMBER OF SEATS! NOT ONLY IS OUR CROWD THE LARGEST IN COLLEGE SOFTBALL, BUT THEY ARE ALSO SOME OF THE MOST KNOWLEDGABLE FANS IN THE NATION. THEY KNOW A GOOD PLAY WHEN THEY SEE ONE AND APPRECIATE THE TALENT IN BOTH DUGOUTS."

- Patrick Murphy, Alabama head coach

"RHOADS STADIUM IS ONE OF THE MOST ICONIC LOCALES IN COLLEGE SPORTS. THE MAGIC MOMENTS HAPPENING THERE ARE LEGENDARY AND ARE AMONG THE MOST MEMORABLE IN POSTSEASON HISTORY. I LOVE THE FANS IN TUSCALOOSA. THEY ARE WARM, KNOWLEDGABLE BOISTEROUS AND SECOND-TO-NONE. ANY SOFTBALL FAN SHOULD ADD THE RHOADS HOUSE EXPERIENCE TO THEIR BUCKET LIST!"

- Beth Mowins, ESPN play-by-play announcer

"IT IS THE BEST STADIUM IN THE WORLD. I'VE PLAYED IN EUROPE, JAPAN AND ALL ACROSS NORTH AMERICA AND THERE'S NOTHING LIKE RHOADS STADIUM. THE FANS ARE KNOWLEDGABLE, CLASSY AND THEY CREATE THE BEST ENVIRONMENT. THEY GIVE US SUCH MOMENTUM AND IT'S A PLEASURE TO PLAY IN FRONT OF SUCH PASSIONATE FANS."

- Haylie McCleney, Four time All-American (2013-16)

ALABAMA WITH TEAM USA

FROM TUSCALOOSA TO TOKYO

After six seasons competing with Team USA, Haylie McCleney's seventh will come on the sport's biggest stage in the summer of 2020. McCleney earned a spot on the roster of 15 that will represent the United States at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic games. It marks the sport's first appearance at the games since the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

2014-20 | HAYLIE MCCLENEY

Starting in right field for Team USA, Kretschman was the only batter, for any country, to hit for the cycle – hitting at least one single, double, triple and home run – over the course of the Olympics. Her .333 batting average was eighth best in the summer games and her .714 slugging percentage ranked third among all hitters at the 2004 Olympic games.

In 2008 she earned silver at the Beijing Olympics, batting .348 with a home run and six RBI.

Alabama head coach Patrick Murphy is no stranger to international competition. In 2004 Murphy was the hitting coach for the Canadian Olympic team. He helped lead Canada to one of its most successful international outings, finishing just out of medal contention in fourth place. In 2009 he was named an assistant coach for Team USA and guided the Americans to gold at the Pan Am Qualifier. USA went 13-1 under his guidance in Venezuela. In 2010 he coached the junior national team in Bogota, Colombia.

ALL-AMERICANS

Over the years the Alabama softball program has produced 29 NFCA All-American players.

A black and white photograph capturing a moment of intense celebration on a softball field. In the foreground, a player (Jaclyn Traina) is being embraced from behind by a teammate. The player in the foreground has her mouth wide open in a shout or scream, her eyes squeezed shut. She is wearing a light-colored softball jersey with dark sleeves and pants. The teammate embracing her is also in a similar uniform. In the background, another player is visible, also appearing to be part of the celebration. The background is blurred, showing a crowd of spectators in the stands.

KELLY KRETSCHEMAN

5-6 / OUTFIELD / INDIAN HARBOUR BEACH, FLA.

1998 - 99 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2000-01 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

One of the greatest players to put on a Crimson Tide uniform, Kelly Kretschman was the first four-time NFCA All-American in program history. The former Olympic gold medalist holds numerous records in the Alabama annals, including hits, doubles and runs to name of few. The Indian Harbour Beach, Fla., native led Alabama to its first Women's College World Series appearance in 2000. She held the UA single-season hitting percentage record for over a decade and still holds the single-season home run record with 25.

1999 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Catcher Carrie Moreman was a member of the first Crimson Tide softball team and thus played three seasons due to graduation. In her senior campaign Moreman earned All-America honors for her prowess at the plate and behind it. She was second on the team to fellow All-American Kelly Kretschman in batting average in 1999 and paced the squad with nine home runs.

2000 - NFCA THIRD TEAM | 2001 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Right-handed hurler Shelley Laird was the first of a long line of All-America caliber pitchers to set foot in the circle for Alabama head coach Patrick Murphy. Laird earned back-to-back All-America honors after posting two straight 30-win seasons. The Spring, Texas, native holds the school record in wins, complete games and shutouts to name a few. She held the single season record with 38 wins for 12 years and is the only Tide pitcher with two 30-win seasons.

2000 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

Homegrown talent Ginger Jones joined teammates Kelly Kretschman and Shelley Laird as All-America selections in 2000. Jones and Kretschman garnered the distinction as the initial first-team honorees in program history. The duo helped lead Alabama to a school record 66 wins in 2000. Jones ranks seventh all-time in the Alabama annals with 39 career home runs, while her 17 home runs in 2000 are the sixth most in a single season in school history. In that same season she drove in 69 runs which ranks fifth all-time.

2001 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Second baseman Suzanne Olcott joined teammates Kelly Kretschman, Jackie McClain and Shelley Laird as the first quartet of Alabama All-Americans. The four All-American honorees were the most in a single season until 2008. Olcott had a career year in 2001 and was rewarded for her efforts. She was third on the team with a .335 average and second on the squad with 51 runs and 18 stolen bases. Her six triples rank seventh in the Alabama record book.

2001-03 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2004 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

The left-handed-hitting Jackie McClain became the second player in program history to be named an All-American in four straight seasons. The Soddy Daisy, Tenn., native paced Alabama in hitting her junior and senior seasons after breaking onto the scene as a freshman at a .417 clip. McClain's .484 career on-base percentage ranks fifth all-time at Alabama and she also ranks sixth all-time in batting average and ninth in slugging percentage.

2002 - NFCA FIRST TEAM | 2005 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Ashley Courtney jumped onto the national scene as a freshman and never looked back, as she earned All-America accolades as a rookie and as a senior. Courtney helped guide the Crimson Tide to two Women's College World Series berths - the second and third appearances for Alabama in Oklahoma City. She became the third player in Alabama history at the time to hit over .400 in a season. The Vero Beach, Fla., native is tied for the career record at Alabama with 16 triples. She ranks fourth all-time at the Capstone in runs and hits and holds the eighth-best career batting average. Courtney paced the team in batting average as a freshman and as a senior.

2005-06 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

A threat in the circle and in the batters box Stephanie VanBrakle was the first two-way All-American to suit up for the Crimson Tide. Her power arm combined with a power bat helped lead Alabama to its first ever Southeastern Conference title in 2006. VanBrakle struck out 1,113 batters during her career to set the Alabama record for five years. Her 345 punchouts in 2006 are the third most at Alabama in a single season.

BRITTANY ROGERS

5-6 / OUTFIELD / DACULA, GA.

2006 - NFCA THIRD TEAM | 2007 & 2009 - NFCA SECOND TEAM 2008 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

One of five players in Alabama history to be named an All-American in four straight seasons, the fleet-footed Brittany Rogers electrified the diamond with her speed. Rogers became the second player in school history to hit over .400 in three different seasons. The Dacula, Ga., native became the fourth player in Southeastern Conference history and the second at Alabama to tally over 300 hits, 200 runs and 100 stolen bases. Rogers holds the Alabama record for stolen bases with 198 and ranks third all-time with 343 hits and 256 runs while her .417 career batting average ranks fourth.

CHRISSE OWENS

6-0 / PITCHER / MIAMI, FLA.

2007 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Right-handed fireballer Chrissy Owens became the third All-America pitcher under head coach Patrick Murphy. Oddly, her All-America campaign in 2007 was not her best. In 2006, Owens was nearly unhittable, leading the Crimson Tide to its first ever Southeastern Conference championship. The Miami native holds the two lowest ERAs in school history, posting a 0.88 mark in 2006 and a 1.33 ledger in 2005. Her 1.49 career ERA is the lowest in school history and her 67 wins ranks fifth all-time. On top of baffling teams from the start, Owens also holds the career mark at the Capstone in saves with 21. Her 11 saves in 2005 are the most in a season in Alabama history.

LAUREN PARKER

5-4 / INFIELD / PORT NECHES, TEXAS

2007 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

A transfer from Baylor, Lauren Parker had no problems adjusting to her new surroundings as she immediately made an impact en route to earning first team All-America honors. Parker jumped onto the scene and hit .457, the fifth highest season clip in school history. While her .368 career batting average ranks fifth, Parker was equally as good with her glove. The Port Neches, Texas, native teamed up with fellow senior Kellie Eubanks to set an NCAA record by turning five double plays against Texas in the 2009 Tuscaloosa Regional. Known as a free-swinger, Parker was deceptively tough to strike out as she fanned 10 or fewer times in each of her three seasons at the Capstone.

2008 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

One of the greatest defensive players to put on a Crimson Tide uniform and arguably the best defensive third baseman in the country during her tenure at the Capstone, Kelley Montalvo earned All-America honors in 2008. During that 2008 campaign when she helped lead Alabama to its longest stay at the Women's College World Series, Montalvo posted career highs in batting average, hits and RBI. She ranks in the top 10 in the Alabama record books in doubles (4th, 51), walks (6th, 131), on base percentage (7th, .469), runs (9th, 174) and slugging percentage (10th, .579). Her 52 walks in 2009 set an Alabama individual season record and ranked 10th in the country. Defensively, Montalvo garnered SEC All-Defensive Team accolades in 2008 and 2009.

2008-09 - NFCA FIRST TEAM | 2010 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

One of the best two-way-players in the country year-in and year-out, Charlotte Morgan etched her name in the record books. The first in program history to earn SEC Player of the Year honors twice, Morgan broke the SEC career RBI record with 264 and was near the top in every batting record. Her 79 RBIs as a sophomore remained an Alabama single season record for seven years.

KELSI DUNNE

6-0 / PITCHER / PORT ORANGE, FLA.

2008 & 2010 - NFCA THIRD TEAM | 2009 & 2011 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

Making an immediate impact in the circle, Florida native Kelsi Dunne backed up her National High School Player of the Year accolades by becoming one of the top collegiate hurlers. Dunne capped off her career by being named the Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year as a junior and a senior. She shattered numerous Alabama pitching records such as lowest opponent batting average (.165), most strikeouts per seven innings (9.82) and most strikeouts (1,219). Dunne was unhittable in the circle, tossing nine no-hitters, including two straight against Jacksonville State to advance the Tide to the WCWS in 2009.

KAYLA BRAUD

5-6 / OUTFIELD / EUGENE, ORE.

2010 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2011 & 2013 NFCA FIRST TEAM

Kayla Braud started her career in the same way she started many games as the team's leadoff hitter: with a bang. Her freshman campaign proved to be one of the best in NCAA history, helping earn her SEC Freshman of the Year honors while batting a school-record .505 average. She continued to be a model of consistency, earning First Team All-America honors in two of her last three seasons. She was always a threat to get on base, finishing with a .438 career average which is the highest four-year total in program history. She was equally as dangerous on the basepaths, accumulating 182 stolen bases over her career, which ranks second at Alabama.

ALL-AMERICANS

WHITNEY LARSEN

5-9 / UTILITY / VESTAVIA HILLS, ALA.

2011 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

A player who showed steady improvement every season, Whitney Larsen turned in a stellar senior campaign as she put together a career year en route to her first All-America selection. Larsen is regarded as one of the best captains in program history, leading the team to the semifinals of the 2011 Women's College World Series. Larsen proved to be a versatile player for head coach Patrick Murphy, finding significant time in the outfield and at second base before finding a home at shortstop - a position she solidified for two seasons. Quietly, Larsen played her way into the record books. Her 196 RBIs rank third all-time at the Capstone on the strength of 65 RBI as a senior, which marks the fourth-best season output in school history. She also ranks fifth in home runs (48), and seventh in slugging percentage (.601).

JACLYN TRAINA

5-11 / PITCHER/DP / NAPLES, FLA.

2011-12, 2014 - NFCA FIRST TEAM | 2013 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Traina is Alabama's fifth four-time All-American, though she was the first to earn three First Team honors. In her senior season, the Naples, Fla., native earned her 100th career win, becoming just the third player in Alabama history and the eighth in SEC history to hit the milestone. More importantly than the records and awards earned over her career, Traina's enduring legacy to Alabama fans will be her role in guiding the team to its first-ever national championship during her sophomore season. Traina led the country in 2012 with 42 wins and struck out 361 batters. She started every game for the Crimson Tide in its eighth WCWS and was named the Most Outstanding Player after securing five wins and batting .400 in Oklahoma City.

JENNIFER FENTON

5-4 / CENTER FIELD / KENNESAW, GA.

2012 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

A versatile player who put together a complete season in 2012, Jennifer Fenton helped lead the Crimson Tide to its first national championship. Fenton excelled at all aspects of the game, hitting for power, playing stellar defense and showcasing her speed. The Kennesaw, Ga., native broke the NCAA record for consecutive stolen base record without getting thrown out by swiping 74 straight. She finished her career with 133 thefts, tied for third all-time in the Alabama annals. Most impressively, those 133 stolen bases came on only 138 attempts for a career stolen base percentage of .964. She finished tied for fifth all-time at the Capstone with 202 runs scored and came through in big situations by being named to the SEC all-tournament team three years in a row. Fenton was named to the WCWS all-tournament team and capped her career by being named the SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year.

KAILA HUNT

5-5 / INFIELD / EVANS, GA.

2012-13 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Kaila Hunt will be remembered as one of the most prolific power hitters in Alabama history. In a breakout sophomore campaign in 2012, the Evans, Ga., native powered the Tide to its first national championship by hitting 21 home runs and driving in 77. She backed up her strong sophomore season with another stellar showing in her junior year, leading the team with 15 home runs and 60 RBIs. In her senior season, she became just the second player in Alabama history to surpass 200 career RBI and finished with 58 career home runs, tying her for second in school history. In addition to her numerous All-America and All-SEC accolades, she was a three-time Academic All-SEC honoree (2012-2014), two-time Academic All-American (2013-2014) and finished runner-up for the Senior CLASS Award in 2014.

2013 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2014-16 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

Haylie McCleney burst on the scene as a freshman in 2013 with a .465 average, driving in 41 RBIs and swiping 30 bases to earn Second Team All-America honors. She proved her debut season was no fluke with three-straight First Team All-America nods in her remaining three seasons to become the sixth four-time All-American in program history and just the second to earn three First Team accolades. Ultimately, McCleney finished her Crimson Tide career as the program's all-time leader in batting average, on base percentage, walks and triples along with top-five marks in nine other categories. She was equally successful off the field, twice being named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for softball, just the award's third back-to-back winner, as well as being named the 2016 SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Senior CLASS award winner and NCAA Top 10 honoree.

ALEXIS OSORIO

5-8 / PITCHER / RIVERSIDE, CALIF.

2015 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2017 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

Alexis Osorio quickly earned a reputation as one of the premiere pitchers in the country during her 2015 freshman season. She was named the SEC Freshman of the Year, the Tide's first since Kayla Braud in 2010, and was a top three finalist for the NFCA Freshman of the Year Award. She had 15 wins against top 25 opponents, owning a 0.74 ERA with 110 strikeouts in those 15 wins. In conference-only games, she led the SEC in ERA (1.60), opposing batting average (.186), strikeouts (109) and wins (10). In her very first start of what would be an All-American junior season, Osorio threw a seven-inning perfect game with a then-school record 19 strikeouts. She ended the season with a career-best 334 strikeouts over 203.0 innings pitched, helping to lead the pitching staff to a school-record 27 shutouts.

MARISA RUNYON

5-10 / INFIELD / MYRTLE BEACH, S.C.

2015 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Marisa Runyon showed flashes of power during her freshman season but truly broke through as a sophomore in 2015, earning the moniker "Home Runyon" for her prodigious power at the plate. Thanks in large part to a scorching second half of the 2015 season, Runyon led the team with 19 home runs and set the Alabama single season RBI record with 80. She cemented her legacy with the Crimson Tide faithful on May 23, 2015 in game three of the NCAA Super Regional round against Oklahoma, breaking a 13 at-bat hitless streak with a first pitch go-ahead grand slam in the sixth inning to push Alabama ahead, 5-3, and eventually punch its 10th ticket to the Women's College World Series.

2016 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Leona Lafaele capped her four-year Crimson Tide career with a stellar senior season, powering her way to Second Team All-America honors with a team-leading 16 home runs and 63 RBIs. The 16 home runs was the highest total of her career, nearly as many as her previous three seasons combined, and ranks ninth all-time at Alabama. Twelve of her 16 home runs came in the final 21 games of the season, including seven over a streak of eight games from April 12-24. Her impact at the plate her senior year was equally as important as her impact in the field, where she anchored first base committing just one error over 287 chances.

SYDNEY LITTLEJOHN

6-0 / PITCHER / RUSK, TEXAS

2016 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

After two strong seasons in the circle, Sydney Littlejohn earned All-America recognition her junior year with a team-leading 23 wins. With two perfect games on her resume from her sophomore season, Littlejohn pitched in a combined no-hitter against UAB in February of her junior year, making her the fourth pitcher at Alabama to throw in at least three no-hit efforts. She later gained national attention with a pair of road wins over top-ranked Florida, just the Gators' second and third losses of the season, earning NFCA and ESPNw National Pitcher of the Week accolades. Her dominance continued throughout the rest of SEC play, leading the league with 12 conference wins. In addition to her prowess on the field, she earned Academic All-America accolades for her efforts in the classroom.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

Alabama has been one of the most consistently successful programs in the Southeastern Conference.

2012 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Alabama's first national title came in one of the most dramatic games in Women's College World Series history. After a three-hour rain delay prior to first pitch, Oklahoma raced out to a 3-0 lead before a second rain delay threatened to dampen any hopes of a comeback. When the rain subsided, a relaxed and renewed Crimson Tide team came out of the dugout, immediately taking the lead with four runs in the bottom of the fourth. Leading 5-3 with two outs in the bottom of the seventh, an Oklahoma home run brought the Sooners within one as USA Player of the Year Keilani Ricketts came to the plate. The Tide's ace Jaclyn Traina struck her out looking for the final out, bringing the Tide its first-ever national championship.

STRAIGHT TRIPS TO AN NCAA REGIONAL

The Alabama softball team has made 21-straight appearances in NCAA postseason play. The streak started in 1999 under first-year head coach Patrick Murphy. Every season since his first at the helm of the Crimson Tide, Alabama has been a mainstay in postseason play. The 21-year streak includes 12 Women's College World Series appearances and hosting 18 NCAA regionals in Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide has hosted a regional every season since 2005 and have advanced to the WCWS nine times in that span. Postseason play has been kind to Alabama in Tuscaloosa, as the Tide has won the Regional round all but twice.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES BERTHS

Alabama has advanced to the Women's College World Series 12 times over the program's 23-year history. Alabama's 12 appearances have all come since 2000 and they have won at least one game at Hall of Fame Stadium nine times. The 2012 Crimson Tide became the first team in Southeastern Conference softball history to win a national championship. Twelve different players have been selected to the WCWS All-Tournament team, including 2012 Most Outstanding Player Jaclyn Traina who earned All-Tournament honors again in 2014. All-American Kelly Kretschman was the first, earning the honor in 2000. Charlotte Morgan earned the honor in back-to-back seasons (2008-09) and was joined in 2009 by Brittany Rogers and Kelley Montalvo. Whitney Larsen finished off her career with a selection in 2011. The 2012 honorees included Traina, Kayla Braud, Jennifer Fenton and Amanda Locke. Joining Traina on the 2014 All-Tournament team was fellow senior Kaila Hunt. Montana Fouts and Bailey Hemphill both earned All-Tournament nods in 2019.

NCAA SUPER REGIONAL APPEARANCES

Alabama is the only team in the nation to appear in 15 NCAA Super Regional rounds, qualifying every season since the NCAA introduced the round in 2005. The Tide have won 10 of those 15 series, winning nine of the 10 series that have been played in Tuscaloosa.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE TITLES

Alabama has won 11 different Southeastern Conference titles, earning the regular season trophy outright in 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2019 and five SEC Tournament titles in 1998, 2003, 2005, 2010 and 2012. In its second season of existence, Alabama claimed the tournament title in 1998, beating No. 12 LSU twice and earning a ninth-inning victory over Mississippi State. The Tide's first regular season title came in 2006 on the strength of a 25-4 league record. The Tide swept its way through the 2010 campaign by claiming both the regular season and tournament titles. Alabama swept both titles once again in 2012, winning its third-straight regular season championship before claiming the tournament title in Tuscaloosa en route to the program's first national championship.

O F T R A D I T I O N

In only its fourth season in existence, the Alabama softball team made its inaugural trip to the Women's College World Series and has not looked back since. Only two other teams have appeared in more WCWS than the Crimson Tide since 2000. Alabama has made 11 trips since its first including its first national title in 2012. Alabama has been a staple at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium from the South, leading all SEC teams in appearances. The Crimson Tide has produced 14 WCWS All-Tournament Team selections, including 2012 Most Outstanding Player Jaclyn Traina. From pinch-hit grand slams to downing perennial powerhouses and dancing in the rain, the Crimson Tide has made a lasting impression in Oklahoma City.

"THE FIRST TRIP"

In only the fourth year of the program's history and the second under head coach Patrick Murphy, the Crimson Tide welcomed in the new millennium with its first appearance in the Women's College World Series.

The young 2000 squad went 1-2 in Oklahoma City with a 6-4 victory over DePaul. Tide junior Kelly Kretschman was named to the WCWS All-Tournament team after a three RBI performance in the DePaul game. It was the only World Series appearance for the future Team USA gold medalist, but was only the start of what would become one of the most impressive runs of the decade.

"WE'RE BACK"

In 2003 the Crimson Tide found themselves back in Oklahoma City for the second time in school history. The SEC Tournament champions, who swept through the NCAA Regionals, ran into a wall in Oklahoma City being one of the first teams sent home after two straight defeats.

The offense of Arizona and Oklahoma proved to be too much for future All-American Stephanie VanBrakle, as the right-handed hurler took the loss in both games. After an eight-inning fight with Oklahoma, the Sooners scored three runs in the top of the ninth to take down Alabama in the first elimination game of the tournament.

"LATE-INNING HEROICS"

Alabama's third trip to Oklahoma City would come in 2005, fresh off an SEC Tournament championship. After the Tide lost to Texas in its opening-round game, Alabama once again found itself in one of the first elimination games of the tournament.

This time the Crimson Tide came up with a different result. After battling with DePaul in a 1-1 tie for 11 innings, Alabama's Michelle Menningmann came around to score in the bottom of the 12th for Alabama's second win in WCWS history. The Tide would be sent home the next day after a 4-0 loss to Tennessee.

"BACK-TO-BACK"

In the first game of the 2006 WCWS the Crimson Tide found itself in a dogfight right off the bat. It took 10 innings to decide the opener against No. 11 seed Northwestern. After taking a 5-4 lead into the bottom of the seventh, the Tide gave up a run and eventually fell to the Wildcats in 10 innings, 6-5.

The team did not recover and fell to Pac-10 power and No. 1 seed UCLA, 4-1, marking Alabama's second winless trip to Oklahoma City.

"A NEAR MISS"

The 2008 Crimson Tide squad rolled into Oklahoma City as the No. 3 seed with a record of 56-6. Alabama opened the tournament as one of the hottest teams in America, but in the seventh inning Arizona State stole away the game, winning 3-1.

The Tide fought back with 5-1 and 3-1 wins over Arizona and Louisiana-Lafayette, respectively. Alabama ultimately had to settle for third place in the series, after falling again to the eventual national champion Arizona State in another 3-1 game.

"BAMA MAKES ITS MARK"

After coming out flat in a 6-1 opening game loss to Michigan, a determined Alabama team stormed back to defeat Arizona 14-0, breaking the record for the most runs scored by one team in a single game in WCWS history at that time.

In the next game, Patrick Murphy found his team down 2-0 in the bottom of the fourth to Arizona State. With the bases loaded, Murphy chose to pinch hit freshman Jazlyn Lunceford for four-time All-American Brittany Rogers. Lunceford then hit a grand slam that lifted the Tide to a 6-2 victory.

The next day after carrying a 5-2 lead into the bottom of the seventh, Alabama was beaten by a clutch grand slam. Florida eliminated the Tide from the WCWS with a heartbreaking 6-5 defeat.

"WINNERS BRACKET"

The 2011 Crimson Tide sailed through the first two rounds of the WCWS, earning a win in the opening game for the first time in school history. Alabama then won its second game as well before falling in the semifinal round.

Behind the right arms of senior Kelsi Dunne and freshman phenom Jaclyn Traina, the duo combined to one-hit No. 7 California in the first round for a 1-0 win. The tandem returned the next day to baffle No. 11 Baylor in a 3-0 win. Senior Whitney Larsen went on to earn WCWS All-Tournament honors.

"NATIONAL CHAMPS"

The 2012 Alabama Crimson Tide became the first team in Southeastern Conference history to claim the national championship in softball. The Tide accomplished the feat in its eighth trip to the WCWS.

Behind WCWS MVP Jaclyn Traina and the potent Alabama bats, the Tide sailed to its first-ever championship series appearance. Against an Oklahoma team that featured the national player of the year in Keilani Ricketts, the Sooners took game one, but the Tide rallied to seize the next two victories. The championship game was one for the ages, as Alabama trailed, 3-0 early. But a light rain opened the flood gates for the Tide and the comeback was complete, with Ricketts going down on strikes for the last out.

"BACK TO OKC"

After missing out on the Women's College World Series in 2013, the Crimson Tide returned to Oklahoma City in 2014 as the No. 2 overall seed, marking the ninth WCWS trip in program history.

Alabama defeated the defending national champion Oklahoma in the opening game, 6-2, before holding off a late rally by Kentucky the next day to win, 2-0, and stay in the winners bracket. A matchup against top-seeded Oregon awaited on Sunday, as the Tide shut out the Ducks, 2-0, to advance to the WCWS championship series against SEC rival Florida. In the first ever national title matchup between two SEC teams, it was the Gators that came away victorious, defeating the Tide in two games, 5-0 and 6-3.

"TRIP NUMBER 10"

A thrilling Super Regional round victory over Oklahoma secured Alabama's 10th trip to the Women's College World Series, where a matchup against third-ranked Michigan awaited the Crimson Tide in the opening round. For the first time since 2009, Alabama fell in its opening game as the Wolverines shut out the Tide, 5-0.

Two days later, Alabama returned for an elimination game against Oregon, defeating the Ducks 2-0 behind a great pitching performance by Alexis Osorio and a clutch two-run single by Chandler Dare. Facing another elimination game later that night against LSU, the Tide fell short as the Tigers won, 5-3, to end Alabama's season.

"FAMILIAR FOES"

A Super Regional round victory over Washington in Tuscaloosa secured Alabama's 11th trip to the Women's College World Series, as the Crimson Tide entered Oklahoma City as the No. 6 seed.

Alabama opened play with a familiar foe in third-ranked Oklahoma and the anticipated prime-time matchup didn't even make it past the second inning before heavy rain forced the game to be delayed, resuming the following night. The Sooners outlasted the Tide in an extra inning pitcher's duel, hitting a walk-off home run in the eighth. Alabama then faced conference rival LSU in an elimination game, falling behind 6-1 early but mounting a late comeback to bring the potential tying run to the plate in the seventh. The comeback fell just short however, as the Tide fell 6-4 to end its season.

"DOMIN-8"

After winning an SEC regular season title despite being ranked eighth in the preseason league rankings, it seemed auspicious that the Crimson Tide earned a No. 8 national ranking heading into the NCAA Tournament. Using the number as its rallying cry, Alabama swept its regional before earning a hard-fought series victory over Texas in the super regional round to secure a spot in the field of eight in Oklahoma City.

After a 3-2 loss to Oklahoma, the Tide bounced back in emphatic fashion with a dominant 15-3 victory over Florida. A 2-0 win over Arizona later that night set up a rematch with the Sooners on the final day of bracket play. In the eighth inning of a scoreless game, senior Caroline Hardy came through with a clutch walk-off RBI single to force a winner-take-all elimination game, but Oklahoma won that battle, 7-3, to end Alabama's run.

COACHES/STAFF

In today's world of collegiate athletics, few can claim to have been at a program since the beginning. Not many can say they were there at the origin of a program, having been present from the very inception to where it stands today. And certainly nobody can claim to have brought a program further, and in shorter time, than Crimson Tide head softball coach Patrick Murphy, entering his 22nd season as the program's leader in 2020.

From a humble start to a national championship, Murphy has taken Alabama to the top of the college softball world. Beginning with his days as an assistant in the very first years of the Alabama softball program, Murphy has emerged as the face of a team that has grown under his leadership to become one of the most consistently successful programs in the nation.

The accomplishments are there for everyone to see. A 2012 National Championship, 12 Women's College World Series berths, six SEC regular season titles, four SEC Tournament titles and 21-straight NCAA Tournament bids are only a few of the team honors that Murphy has brought to Tuscaloosa during his tenure.

The individual honors are equally as impressive. Tide players have earned NFCA All-America honors 57 times under Murphy's watch. He has tutored 102 All-SEC performers and 101 NFCA All-Region honorees. His teams have been just as successful in the classroom, with 26 CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and 234 SEC Honor Roll selections.

Even more impressively, Murphy has led the program to a surge of popularity among Tide fans. Alabama has become a regular atop the nation's attendance standings, with an ever-growing group of loyal fans who fill the stands at Rhoads Stadium throughout the season. The 2008 campaign was a sellout, setting a new benchmark in season tickets sold with more than 1,200 allocated to loyal fans. During the 2009 season, Alabama broke the single-season attendance record formerly held by Fresno State. Then, in 2010, a record total of 80,690 fans were part of the atmosphere in Tuscaloosa.

Attendance eventually topped the 90,000 mark in back-to-back seasons, with 91,541 fans in 2012 and 93,332 in 2013. Alabama led the nation in attendance in 2014 as well, welcoming 83,233 fans to Rhoads Stadium. In 2015, Alabama surpassed 90,000 for the third time in four years, as 90,021 fans made for yet another electric home season in Tuscaloosa. In 2016, Alabama became the first program in NCAA history to average over 3,000 fans per game. The Tide set a single-game attendance record in 2017 with a sellout crowd of 4,015 attending the May 5 contest against Auburn. Fans kept packing the seats the entire weekend, as all three games of the series sold out for a weekend total of 12,045.

Murphy has turned his program into an absolute model of consistency, having guided Alabama to its first national title, 21 consecutive NCAA tournaments, and appearances in 12 Women's College World Series (2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2019). Since the Super Regional round was introduced to the NCAA Tournament in 2005, Alabama is the only team in the country to appear in all 15 series, winning 10 of them.

Alabama's coaching staff has been named the NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year 11 times (2000, 2003, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2016, 2019), including national staff of the year honors in 2012 following the team's national title.

In 2012, a magical season for the Tide culminated in defeating Oklahoma for the NCAA Championship, the first in program history and the first for any SEC team. Alabama finished 60-8 and claimed its third-straight SEC regular-season championship. The Tide also won the SEC Tournament, becoming the first team ever to host the highly competitive tournament and come out champions. The NFCA ultimately named the Alabama coaches the 2012 National Coaching Staff of the Year.

Since taking over prior to the 1999 season, Murphy has compiled a winning record in all 21 seasons. He has won 45 or more games in 19 of the last 20 years, including a program-best 66 victories in 2000. Murphy also has won 20-plus games in conference play in 11 of his 20 seasons in the SEC. The 2008 campaign marked the third time he had posted 25 conference victories, matching the win totals from the 2006 and 2000 seasons.

Murphy's ability to build and maintain the impressive level of consistency places him among the nation's elite. He has a career mark of 1,083-303 (.781) in 21 seasons as the head coach at Alabama, including a 417-151 (.734) record in league play.

It is Murphy's desire for perfection that has guided the Tide to the upper echelon of the softball world. His hard-nosed work ethic has led the program to as high as No. 1 in the national rankings, reached for the first time in program history during the 2007 season. The 2010 squad earned the number one overall seed in the NCAA tournament after finishing the season on a 21-game winning streak, a run that saw the Tide capture both the SEC regular season and tournament titles.

Murphy officially acquired the title of Alabama's head coach on July 12, 1998. He spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on the Crimson Tide coaching staff. In his first season as the head coach, Murphy took the team to its first NCAA Tournament en route to a 39-26 final record. In his second season, Murphy took the program to the next step, leading Alabama to its first-ever Women's College World Series berth after the best regular season in school history. That 2000 team won a school-record 66 games (66-14) and 25 SEC games (25-5). They finished in the top 10 for the first time in school history, after earning a 6-4 victory over DePaul for the school's first win in the WCWS.

One could almost say that Murphy was born to be on the diamond. In the third grade, the Fayette, Iowa, native put on his first baseball glove and took to the little league fields. He later made Fayette High School's varsity baseball squad as an eighth-grader and played for five years under five different coaches.

"I always knew I wanted to be a coach," Murphy says. "My high school was such a small school that I got to play varsity baseball in eighth grade. Every year it was something different I learned, either good or bad, from each coach. My senior year, I tried to put everything together I had learned from all the different coaches and came up with a good collaborative plan."

After hanging up his spikes on his prep career, Murphy made the trip to the campus of the University of Northern Iowa where he spent the next four years. Murphy took his first job doing what he always had wanted to do, but on a smaller scale, when he became a little league head coach. Three years after taking that job, he graduated from Northern Iowa with a bachelor's degree in history education.

Even with his youngest players on that team being close to his own age at the time, Murphy concedes that his first job as a head coach was where he learned the most about himself and the game.

"Those kids were baseball nuts," he says. "They played baseball on the town tennis court because that was the only place in town that had lights. The lights would go off automatically at midnight, so that is when they knew they had to go home. They taught me so many things about the game of baseball. They played because they loved it so much."

It took only two years for Murphy to become a success as a head coach. After leading the Sumner High School boys to a 22-3 record in his first year as head coach, he guided the Aces to the state championship game the next season. Following a short stay at Sumner, Murphy continued his education as a graduate student at the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now known as the University of Louisiana). While at USL, he broke into the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant softball coach while finishing his master's degree in communications in 1992.

"The head coach at USL knew I had coached baseball in Iowa and she told me about the job," Murphy remembers. "It only paid six thousand dollars, but I was in grad school there and she asked me if I wanted another duty. That's where it all started and I just got hooked."

Prospering with the Ragin' Cajuns through a five-year record (1990-94) of 239-46 – including a trip to the 1993 Women's College World Series on the shoulders of former player and current Alabama associate head coach Alyson Habetz – Murphy moonlighted as head coach of the Independence Iowa high school baseball team from 1992-95. Due to the high recognition of his duties as an assistant coach at USL, along with the solid success of his duties as a high school coach, Murphy was hired as interim head coach at Northwest Missouri State in 1995. Although he was officially hired only three weeks before spring practice in 1995, Murphy led the Bearcats to a 28-20 record.

Murphy has proven himself to be a leader capable of recruiting and developing talented players who perform on the field and in the classroom. Combining that with the lure of athletic tradition at Alabama and the nation's finest facilities, the Tide softball team remains among the best in the nation.

Patrick Murphy's 1,000th victory at Alabama came on March 9, 2018 when senior pitcher Alexis Osorio threw a no-hitter against Boston College.

ALYSON HABETZ

Associate Head Coach 22nd Year
SOUTHWESTERN LOUISIANA, 1995

COACHES/STAFF

If Patrick Murphy has been the face of the Alabama softball program throughout its entirety, Alyson Habetz certainly has played a huge role in developing the Tide into one of the nation's elite. Currently in her 22nd season on Murphy's staff in 2020, Habetz earned a promotion when Murphy named her associate head coach in the summer of 2007.

Habetz brings a wealth of knowledge to the Crimson Tide softball staff. She joined on Sept. 21, 1998, in the program's third year. During her tenure, Habetz has helped lead the Tide to 12 Women's College World Series appearances, including its first national championship in 2012, along with six SEC regular season titles and four SEC Tournament titles.

Habetz's primary duties include outfield play and team offense. She also contributes significantly to the evaluation of recruits.

"Alyson is a great role model for our players and future recruits," Murphy says. "She is one of the most outstanding people I have met. She was a dream to coach and she is even better to coach with. I think she's the best assistant coach in the country. She has turned down several head coaching jobs already and she keeps getting better and better each year."

During her time in Tuscaloosa, Crimson Tide outfielders have consistently earned NFCA All-America accolades, including four-time All-Americans Kelly Kretschman (1998-2001), Brittany Rogers (2006-09) and Haylie McCleney (2013-16).

Habetz began her stint at Alabama following a four-year career in women's professional baseball. She joined the pitching rotation with the Colorado Silver Bullets women's professional baseball team in 1995 following her collegiate playing career. Habetz played with the Silver Bullets for three years before joining the Long Beach Aces of the now defunct women's professional baseball league as a first baseman and pitcher in 1998.

After her first season with the Silver Bullets, Habetz made the trip to Cooperstown, N.Y., for the opening of a section in the National Baseball Hall of Fame recognizing the Colorado Silver Bullets team. Her good friend and favorite sports hero Tommy Lasorda was on hand for the ceremony.

After spending two years fighting the issue in the state courts, Habetz became the first female in the state of Louisiana to play high school baseball, garnering all-district honors as a first baseman and pitcher at Notre Dame High School (in Crowley, La.) while earning all-state honors as a basketball player.

Habetz also excelled in the classroom, representing the NDHS class of 1990 as its salutatorian before earning an academic scholarship to the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now the University of Louisiana), where she had earned a basketball scholarship.

While displaying her talents as a basketball player at USL, Habetz was a member of the softball team, earning third team All-America, All-South Region, All-Louisiana and Academic All-America honors with the Ragin' Cajuns. While at USL, she played for a staff that included Murphy, who was an assistant coach in Lafayette.

Habetz helped lead the Cajuns to an appearance in the 1993 Women's College World Series. As a member of the basketball team, Habetz etched her name in the record books, settling in at No. 7 all-time on the career scoring list en route to earning membership in the 1,000-point club. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications in 1995.

Habetz was a 2006 inductee into the Louisiana High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame. She also is enshrined in the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's Sports Hall of Fame, where she was inducted in 2003.

STEPHANIE VANBRAKLE PROTHRO

Assistant Coach

9th Year

ALABAMA, 2007

Stephanie VanBrakle Prothro enters her ninth season as the University of Alabama's pitching coach in 2020.

In her first season guiding the Alabama pitching staff in 2012, she helped the Crimson Tide win its first national championship. Behind the right arm of Jaclyn Traina, the 2012 team rolled through the postseason, winning the Southeastern Conference regular-season title for the third-straight year and then claiming the SEC Tournament title before advancing through the NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds and finally capturing the coveted national championship.

Prothro was instrumental in the development of Traina. In her first season as the ace of the staff, Traina was named an NFCA first team All-American and the SEC Pitcher of the Year. Traina led the nation with a school-record 42 wins and struck out 361 batters, another Tide all-time best. The following season in 2013, Traina again earned NFCA and Easton All-America honors. As a senior in 2014, Traina was again named a First Team All-American and took home SEC Pitcher of the Year honors, helping lead the Tide to a runner-up finish at the Women's College World Series.

In 2015, Prothro oversaw a pitching staff that included SEC Freshman of the Year Alexis Osorio, a First Team All-American and top-three finalists for the NFCA Freshman of the Year award. Sophomore Sydney Littlejohn also threw a pair of perfect games that season, becoming the first Tide pitcher to throw a perfect game since Prothro did so as a player for Alabama in 2006. Littlejohn was tabbed a Second Team All-American in 2016 and earned national accolades following two wins on the road against then-top ranked Florida during the regular season.

On opening weekend of the 2017 season, Osorio threw the program's fourth perfect game in a win over Coastal Carolina, fanning a school-record 19 batters, which surpassed Prothro's own record that had stood for over a decade. That win marked the start of what would be another All-American season for Osorio in which she earned 23 wins with a 1.21 ERA and 334 strikeouts, including four games with 18 or more strikeouts. In the NCAA Tournament, Osorio allowed just two runs over 23.2 innings pitched with 29 strikeouts against top-ranked Minnesota and top-seeded Florida.

In 2019, Alabama's pitching staff earned a pair of postseason honors from the Southeastern Conference, with Sarah Cornell as its Pitcher of the Year and Montana Fouts the Freshman of the Year. Fouts would also go on to earn NFCA All-America honors and was a top-three finalist for its national Freshman of the Year award.

Prothro was named Alabama's pitching coach on July 5, 2011, returning to Tuscaloosa after spending one season as the head coach at Samford. Prior to serving as Samford's head coach, she spent the previous two years as the head coach at Birmingham Southern College. She posted a record of 57-14 in her two seasons with the Panthers, for an impressive .803 winning percentage.

In her first season as a head coach in 2009, Prothro led the Panthers to a 32-5 record. The team broke 13 program records, including the mark for wins in a season. Her first team posted a .364 team batting average and 1.19 ERA. Prothro's 2010 team then finished with a record of 25-9 overall and 12-4 in the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference.

Prior to becoming head coach at Birmingham-Southern, Prothro spent the 2008 season as an assistant coach on the BSC staff. That season, the Panthers earned a 32-28 record for the first 30-win season in program history. She also helped coach four All-Big South Conference players and two CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees.

Prothro played professionally in National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) for the Philadelphia Force prior to being hired at Birmingham-Southern. She also served as a 2007 student assistant coach at her alma mater, with the Tide going 55-10 during that season.

During her stellar career at Alabama from 2003-06, Prothro helped the Crimson Tide win its first Southeastern Conference regular season title in 2006 plus SEC Tournament championships in 2003 and 2005. She earned SEC Tournament MVP honors in 2005 and was named SEC Pitcher of the Year in 2006.

Prothro helped her team make NCAA Regional and Super Regional appearances during all four of her years at Alabama, as well as three NCAA College World Series appearances (2003, 2005, 2006).

A native of Chambersburg, Pa., Prothro was named an NFCA second team All-American in 2005 and 2006. She was also SEC Pitcher of the Year and was one of 10 finalists for the Collegiate Player of the Year as a senior in 2006. She also was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll four of her years at Alabama.

Prothro's other playing honors included 2003 Region VIII Tournament MVP, NFCA All-South Region in 2003, 2005 and 2006, and NFCA All-American in 2005 and 2006. She also earned all-conference honors each of her four years at Alabama and was named the 2003 SEC Freshman of the Year.

Prothro earned a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education from Alabama in 2007. She and her husband, Quintin Prothro, currently reside in Northport, Ala.

KATE HARRIS

Director of Operations

10th Year

CREIGHTON, 2007

Kate Harris enters her 10th season as Alabama softball's first full-time director of operations.

"We are very excited to have Kate Harris on our staff," Head Coach Patrick Murphy said upon hiring Harris prior to the 2011 season. "I have always said the best quote to live by is to surround yourself with good people and good things will happen. Kate is a great person who came highly recommended."

Harris coordinates all team travel, including processing expense reports, game contacts, monitors monthly financial budgets and reconciles Pcard purchases for sport oversight and the business office. She also organizes and facilitates all official and unofficial recruiting visits and handles each visiting teams needs throughout the fall and spring seasons. Harris monitors all activities for compliance with the University according to NCAA and SEC guidelines and logs weekly countable athletically related activities. She serves as the camp director for Patrick Murphy Softball School Summer camps and assists with other clinics throughout the fall and winter. Harris is the program's liaison with the official booster club of Alabama Softball, the Bama Softball Walk-off Club and helps tremendously with various fundraising projects. She is also very active in Alumni affairs, striving to maintain strong relationships and support with former Alabama student-athletes and staff.

Harris joined the Crimson Tide staff after serving as an assistant softball coach at her alma mater, Creighton. For two seasons, the Waterloo, Iowa, native worked with the outfielders and hitters in addition to her role with Bluejay softball camps. In her two seasons at Creighton, she helped guide the Bluejays to back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championships and two NCAA regional appearances.

Harris was a Bluejay outfielder from 2004-07, appearing in 122 games. She was a member of three NCAA Tournament teams, helping the Jays win the MVC tournament in 2004, 2005 and 2007.

Creighton also won the 2007 MVC regular-season championship with Harris as a senior leader. She received Creighton softball's Most Inspirational Award following her sophomore, junior and senior seasons.

Before returning to Creighton, Harris taught at Millard West High School in Omaha, Neb., while also coaching softball and basketball at Millard West.

Harris received a Bachelor's of Science degree in Sociology from Creighton University in 2007. She also holds a Master's of Science degree in Human Environmental Sciences with a graduate certification in conflict management, negotiation and mediation from The University of Alabama (2017).

Harris and her husband, Korey, currently reside in Tuscaloosa, Ala., along with their son, James William, and dog, Kirby. Korey played collegiate soccer at Creighton University (Cullman High School) and later received a bachelor's degree in Communications and Information Sciences from The University of Alabama. He is a Chiropractic Physician and works at Precision Chiropractic in Pelham, AL (D.C., Life University).

BRYNNE DORDEL

Volunteer Assistant

3rd Year

Brynne Dordel is in her third season with the Crimson Tide coaching staff, joining in 2018 as its volunteer assistant coach, following previous coaching stints at Iowa State, North Dakota State and Ball State.

Prior to arriving in Tuscaloosa, Dordel was an assistant coach at Iowa State during the 2017 season, working primarily with the Cyclones' pitching staff. Prior to her time in Ames, Iowa, she spent three seasons as a pitching coach at North Dakota State. There, she guided the Bison to three Summit League regular season and tournament titles and qualified for the NCAA Tournament all three seasons. The NDSU coaching staff was named the NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2015 and 2016 and earned Summit League Coaching Staff of the Year honors in 2014 and 2015. During the 2012 and 2013 seasons, Dordel was a coach at Ball State, earning back-to-back Mid-American Conference titles.

"We are all very excited to gain someone of Brynne's caliber on our staff," UA head coach Patrick Murphy said. "Firstly, she is an incredible young woman whose values fit with ours. Secondly, to find someone with her coaching and playing experience was a huge boost for our program. She has experience at three other Division I schools. I am anxious for our fans to get to know her."

A native of Chaska, Minn., Dordel is a 2011 graduate of Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, where she was a four-year starter on the Bulldog softball squad. She helped lead the team to a 2008 Missouri Valley Conference title, earning tournament MVP honors, and the program's first NCAA tournament appearance since 1994. She graduated with a 4.0 grade point average and earned second team Academic All-America honors in her senior season.

Alabama went 60-10, its fourth 60-win season in program history and first since 2012. The Tide earned its sixth Southeastern Conference regular season title behind an 18-6 league record and finished runner-up at the SEC tournament. Alabama qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the 21st-consecutive season, winning Regional and Super Regional rounds in Tuscaloosa to secure its 12th appearance at the Women's College World Series. The Tide went 3-2 in Oklahoma City, earning wins over Florida, Arizona and Oklahoma.

Alabama boasted a program-record six NFCA All-South Region honorees, with Montana Fouts, Bailey Hemphill and Kaylee Tow eventually earning All-America accolades. The Tide also placed six athletes among the SEC postseason awards, with Fouts as the Freshman of the Year and Sarah Cornell as the pitcher of the year. Head Coach Patrick Murphy was named the SEC Coach of the Year, his fifth such accolade at Alabama.

Alabama went 33-0 to start the season, marking the best start to a season in program history and the third-best start in NCAA history, only two behind Oregon (2017) and UCLA (1999). Junior Bailey Hemphill also etched her name in the Crimson Tide record book, blasting a school-record 26 home runs and 84 RBIs. Her 26 home runs beat the previous SEC record of 25 set by Alabama's Kelly Kretschman in 1998.

Alexis Osorio tied an NCAA record with 21 strikeouts in a seven-inning game, defeating Fordham on March 10, 2018. She was just the second player in NCAA history to accomplish the feat, originally set by Cal's Michele Granger on March 22, 1991 against Creighton. This mark bested Osorio's previous single-game high of 19, which was the school record. The Riverside, Calif., native finished her four-year Crimson Tide career with five of the top seven single-game strikeout totals in program history.
